

2021 MICHIGAN FILM FESTIVAL FORUM

VIRTUAL EVENT

Wednesday, June 16 | 1 p.m. – 5 p.m.

Please join the Michigan Film & Digital Media Office (MFDMO) for this virtual event featuring inclusive and meaningful conversations around best practices, collaborative opportunities with industry groups and local stakeholders, and current resources available to film festival organizers.

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

- Navigating the challenges and opportunities prompted by the COVID-19 environment
- Hear from speakers regarding the state of the MFDMO, Michigan's local tourism industry, data, insights and trends drawn from national industry surveys
- Ideas for how to collaborate with your local partners and community stakeholders
- Resources for the film festival industry
- This live event will include presentations, Q&A sessions, and facilitated discussion with attendees

Participation is free, but registration is required to attend.

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER NOW!

Please contact mfdmoevents@michigan.org
and copy ghirmais@michigan.org with questions.

